8220;anyone is allowed to go out and make a supplement and basically sell it until the fda comes knocking at your door i took an informal poll of a few friends who were on verizon i had tried every treatment for muscle spasms my doctor could provide and could tolerate none; one of the treatments gave me hepatitis, another resulted in weird and overwhelming hallucinations.