he has gone a couple times and very much liked the therapist but i cannot seem to get him back there.

roots should be placed on a screen or rack and dried outdoors in the shade or in a well-ventilated attic the reasonable person standard includes consideration of the perspective of persons of the same race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, or disability as the harassment victim